NOTICES OF Books.

THE YOUNG AMERICAN LIBRARY OF FICTION; MILWAUKEE, Oct. 1.

Morris, and F. A. Tamm, have received a supply of this admirable little book. It tends, in a lively narrative of the adventures of a disreputable Cal. Passover, to teach the young that life-hunting is a better thing than that life-hunting is a noble thing for the boys of America. The writer has this to say:

"These elements, many other, have always been combined in the character—industrious, energetic,勇敢, persevering—and said that the whole were cemented together by pride."

For the Sentinel.

Alfred, Lohr—Will you please let me know what has become of the Orpheus, released by the City Fathers, during "Fairs, and other entertainments" to be imposed?

Will it only be played off by them? Will the Police-report? Where is the Chit, and that Penn ordered to be presented by him? We are anxious to know.

Orpheus, &c. &c.
